God holds young people in high esteem.

Throughout the Bible, we find young people playing a central role in God's redemptive plan. From Genesis to Revelation, young people who entered into a covenant relationship with God have left a significant mark on the nations. As the Church of Jesus Christ, we live in critical and decisive times, and today I speak to you, young woman, young man. This is a special three-day gathering where we know with absolute certainty that the Lord Jesus will reveal Himself to you in a unique way that will change your life and give you a new perspective on your present and your future on this earth.

Don't miss it for anything in this sick, perishing world; see it as a divine appointment that your God and Father has prepared to surprise you and fill you with the power of His Holy Spirit, with His anointing and His presence.
